Under direction of the Anacostia Fed-eration for Social Service a meeting for women was he'd yesterday in the Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church.

A series of lectures on Socialism are to be conducted at Masonic Hall in the mear future.

Salem Lodge No. 22, Independent Or-der of Odd Fellows, met last evening in Mascnic Hall.

Warren Tolson, of Piney Point, Md. arrived this morning to spend a few days with relatives.

Street cars were delayed for a short ime this morning when a plece of iron secome clogged under the fender of one of the large summer cars.

MT. RAINIER.

The Mount Rainier volunteer fire de partment last night gave an entertainment and smoker in the Brentwood department hall. Malcom Reintzell Perry Martin, Finicy S. Dayes, Charles Peckham, Assistant Chief Clarence E. Moore, Peter Hagan and William Lewis participated William Lewis participated. A dinner was served. M. C. Harmon was toastmaster, and speeches were made by Finley Hayes, Lieutenant Markwood, of Washington; William Lewis, Captain byington, of the Langdon fire depart Covington, of the Langdon fire department; Chief Frank Crown, of the Mount Rainier department; Mayor W. H. Venneman, of Mount Rainier; Frank Cameron, of the Brentwood department; Robert Fayne, Dr. J. C. Chlendorf, W. R. Matchett, Stuart Hayes and V. V. MacNell.

Mayor Venneman last night, when asked as to the rumors affort that the town would not be able to float the bends recently voted for the purpose of installing water, sewer and electric lights, stated the town would have no trouble in securing the money and that he was being worted almost to that he was being worried almost to death by bonding companies. He said bids would be asked from contractors, and that bonds would be issued only the amount actually needed.

Stuart Hayes, the well-known amateur baseball player of this county and Washington, stated last night that he expected to leave some time in June for a trial with the Cleveland American League team.

Weather forecast_Fair tonight and Saturday, not much change in tempera. ture; frost in low places tonight. Wind-North.

Condition of the Potomac-Muddy. High tide-12:07 a. m. Low tide-5:57 a. m. and 6:51 p. m.

With the riven clearing up today the sportsmen are taking heart, and the indications are that some of them will be taking out some fish in a day or two unless more rain falls up in the mountains this week. The tackle stores report a bull market for rods, reels and other paraphernalia, and there will be a lot of rock missing from home before May is over. One month from today the bass season will be open in Virginia waters, but there is not much nourishment in that for local fishermen, as all of the Potomac is controlled by the Maryland game laws, which do not raise the embargo on bass till May la.

There is one fisherman in Washington who will never again boast of the big one that got away. He did that once and fate played him such a low down trick that he lost heart as a conversational fisherman. He was one of a large party of local sportsmen who were fishing Chesapeake hay, and was out in a boat with one or two companions casting with a pearl spoon. For some unexplained reason a rock fish took the lure but after a short fight the line broke just where it was fastened to the leader and the fish escaped.

There was wailing in the boat, and when the party got ashore there were thursdling stories told of the giant rock that snapped a new line as if it had been a spider's thread. There was the broken line to prove it, and the size of the fish grew with each telling. In the meantime the fish's mouth was held open by the spoon, and he soon lay ear the surface of the water, unable to breathe. Another boating party dipped him up in a net and were surprised to find a new pearl spoon in his mouth. When they returned to their friends on shore they learned of the loss of the Before the astonished group spoon. The fish weighed seventeen

Boats may be obtained from Tram-mell, Great Falls: Fletcher, Lock Cove; two boathouses, Three Sistera: Reynolds or Barker, foot of Thirty-fourth street; Cumberland, foot of Twenty-sixth Cumberland, foot of Twenty-sixth street; Balley, under Anacostia bridge; Miller, D. C. end of Benning bridge.

Bait always to be purchased at fol-owing boathouses: Reynolds', Bailey's, and Miller's. Also at certain fishing tackle stores.

The following places bear the repu-tation of being good fishing grounds: (1) "The Parlor," a pool above Boiling Rock, straight out from Fletcher's. The water is deep and swift, and the pool ears its name because the fish are own to congregate there. (2) Middle above the Chain Bridge.

There's No Corn That 'GETS-IT' Won't Get

Madam, for Those Corns That Make You Jump Out of Your Shoes, Try Wonderful "GETS IT."

you've tried so long to pry off of your toe. It's easy to apply. "GETS-IT"toe. It's easy to apply. "GETS-IT"-one, two, three, and it's done! The corn begins to shrivel, away she goes, surely, absolutely. A few drops will do it. "GETS-IT" never makes toes red and raw. Corn pains go! It means the end of cutting and gouging of corns, the end of sticky plasters that don't work snyhow, the end of salves that cat up your toes, no more "harness," or fussing. Try "GETS-IT," the new, sure way, for corns and calluses.

DEATHS

ROSE—On Thursday, April 30, 1886, at 1:85 p. m., at his residence, 724 I street south-east, JAMES E. ROSE, beloved father of T. Wellington Rose, Mrs. P. R. Pullman, and Herbert J. Rose.

Notice of funeral hereafter (Virginia papers please copy.)

IN MEMORIAM

Award—In sad but loving remembrance or my dear darling who departed this life one year ago today, May 1, 1913. You are gone dear baby, but not forgotten. You are gone dear baby, but not forgotten Jimmie.

Nor will you ever be So long as life and memory last I will always think of thee.

In the graveyard softly sleeping.

Where the flowers gently wave.
Lies the one I love so dearly In his lonely, silent grave.
Oh, darling could you speak to me.
Oh, could you live again.

My sching heart would then be healed-But this wish is all in vain,
Baby Jimmie is gone but not forgotten So long as mamma and papa, grand mother and Manna George
Can linger around his precious grave.

—By His Grandmother Angel.
